The Member Councils of the Eastern Region Alliance (ERA) have joined to deliver many innovative and resource-smart projects for the benefit of local South Australian communities. The alliance includes the Cities of Burnside, Campbelltown, Norwood, Payneham and St. Peters, Prospect, Tea Tree Gully, Unley and the Town of Walkerville. The Arts and Culture Portfolio of ERA was established in 2012.

Irena Dadej, 'Early Morning', wool and silk felting

It provides new creative opportunities and champions community development through the arts, enabling whole communities to come together to gain new skills and to participate in arts events and activities, programs and projects across the eastern Adelaide region.

Jorji Gardener, 'A Glimpse into the Past', etching and mixed media

'The ERA We Live In' is a touring and collaborative exhibition celebrating the diversity, vitality, creativity and the characteristics that define an era. Twenty-one artists have been selected to exhibit works that demonstrate a connection to any of the ERA Councils - a connection not limited to geographical residence but which can include cultural, historical, professional, religious and social connections.

Drew Spangenberg, 'subtleties', blown and sandblasted glass

"I love 'my' Hazelwood Park. I go there almost every day. I feel that I know every tree in the park, every turn of the creek, and every colour the park takes with the passing hours of the day and the changing seasons of the year." - Irena Dadej, ERA artist, Burnside.

I trust you will find some answers amid the collective joy, astute observations and skilled execution within the artworks of this exhibition, while being amazed at the vast and diverse creative community the Eastern Region offers. 'The ERA We Live In' will travel to each of the ERA Councils during 2013 and 2014.
