Life's A Beach Adelaide Fringe Festival 19 February - 24 March

Tim Jones, Sea Creatures, Collage and Mixed Media

 ADELAIDE
* FRINGE ***

This quirky and fun show will be a wonder to see. The popular theme of the 'beach', has been interpreted in a variety of ways by over 30 local artists. Artists have thought outside of the square, creating works that are inspired by and use found objects, driftwood, shells, seaweed, sponges and sand. Sea creatures are also well depicted including fish, birds, crabs, insects and more. Come and enjoy a number of different art forms represented such as pottery, sculpture, paintings, mosaics, jewellery, woodwork, prints, textiles and glass.

Emerging Gems Marden Senior College Graduates 31 March - 28 April

Victoria Lowery, Teacup Family, Mixed Media

Emerging Gems is an exhibition by the graduating class of Marden Senior College's Certificate IV in Visual Arts. These talented emerging artists will present a diverse body of work that includes textile pieces, sculptural vessels, paintings, drawings and complex installations. Themes that have been explored include memories, personal connections, nature and architectural structures.

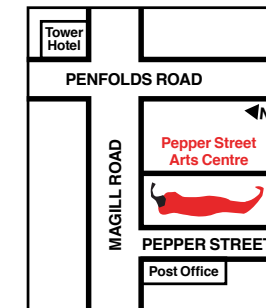

Pattern Play Out of Line Group 5 - 26 May

Leona Greenslade, Textiles, Mixed Media

Patterns are everywhere. They are in nature, cities and suburbs and in our own and other people's behaviours. Patterns are both visual and behavioural. Each member of Out of Line has taken their own approach to representing pattern in their work and then playing with it. The group are delighted by the variation each member brings to this exhibition.

radiance
audrey emery
2 - 23 June

Audrey Emery, Radiant Tree, Pen and Wash

Radiance is a continuation of Audrey's study of a particular tree in her garden, focusing on the patterns of dappled light and shade within and under the tree, as a metaphor for the light and shade in our lives. The artworks explore the transformative power of light and nature and how it inspires a sense of joy, hope and interconnectedness to each other, community and the environment.

The Calligraphy Line
Calligraphy Society of SA
30 June - 21 July

Patricia Lampert, Shakespeare Sonnet 18, Calligraphy

A group of like-minded people with a passion for the delightful art and craft of calligraphy. Some prefer to concentrate on the beauty of the letter forms themselves, producing beautiful works of prose or poetry. Others extend the calligraphic form into art forms or show a combination of illustration and painting techniques. There will be works displayed by members of all standards of expertise, from the humble beginner to the professional.

The Art of Crafts
South Australian Living Artist Festival
30 July - 25 August

SALA

Phyllis Williams, Wearable Art, Textiles

An exhibition celebrating the brilliance of craft-workers in our community. Art and craft by over 30 artists will be on display including textiles, jewellery, ceramics/pottery, glass, sculpture, brass work, metalwork, woodwork and more.

A Wash with Colour
Watercolour Society of SA
1 - 29 September

Diana Mitchell, Kookaburra, Watercolour

This Society was formed to represent watercolourists and to promote the appreciation and practice of watercolours. The group conduct classes and demonstrations and members regularly take part in exhibitions, art competitions and events. This exhibition will be a wonderful variety of work by skilled members, depicting a vast array of work which represents how diverse the medium of watercolours can be.

Colour Seasons
Wild Fibre Artists
6 - 27 October

Charmian Quintrell, Colours, Textiles

Wild Fibre Artists bring together expertise in fibre, textiles, art and craftsmanship. This includes spinning, weaving, felting, leatherwork, stitch, printing, embroidery, papermaking, basketry, glass and mixed media. Each artist works independently but enjoys coming together to exhibit. Visitors can expect to find the gallery filled with a lively and colourful display of unique works created by the group of nine artists.

Norwood Morialta High School
Art, Design and Media Students
3 - 11 November

Oakley Rohde, Study in Light and Dark, Year 8 (2016 student)

In this annual exhibition students will be showcasing a diverse range of work from the art, design and media department by students from Years 8 to 12. Students work in a range of disciplines including painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, design and multimedia. The work is inspired by a range of themes that are both contemporary and relevant to them as individuals. The exhibition encourages students to develop works that are both contemporary and reflective of the students' own experiences and perspectives.
