

Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel

The City of Burnside Council wants different people to be part of the Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel.

The Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel is a group of people from the community.

They help make decisions and provide feedback about issues that affect their community.

They want people in the group who are:

- Living with disability.
- Carers.
- Service providers.
- Other people in the community who care about disability access and inclusion.

People who are part of the panel volunteer their time to attend the meetings.

Volunteer means that you do not get paid for your time.

To join the Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel, you must be:

- Over the age of 15.
- Live, work or study in the City of Burnside.
