Pepper Street Arts Centre has a diverse and thriving variety of art class choices for both adults and children. They include ongoing classes of both short and long term duration such as general drawing, general painting (acrylics, oils, watercolours, and mixed media) and mixed media. We also offer taster classes with our StartArts program that can be offered on a seasonal basis and include mediums such as textiles, knitting, crochet, mosaics, silk painting, felting, card making, ceramics, jewellery making, art therapy and even Hula dancing.

This display provides visitors with the opportunity to see some of the teachers' and tutors' artwork on display. We have a very talented and experienced bunch of artists who are generous with their skills, experience and knowledge and it is wonderful to celebrate and appreciate their creations.

Exhibition concludes on Friday 7 February at 4 pm.

Feedback:

"One of my favourite galleries in Adelaide. Off street parking at rear of building, toilet available and little cafe on site. A gallery that is supportive of local artists. Also has a small library of art books."

Flossey M.

"Nice quiet atmosphere. Good, well-lit displays by local artists. Good coffee and snack fare. Library books available through the One Card system."

Murray H.

"Gorgeous gift shop selling wonderful items by local craft people. I did a crochet workshop with Anne Martin which was very informative, great little area for coffee as well. Highly recommended."

Ann B.

"The art centre contributes to my wellness. I have a mental health problem and have been coming here for 18 years. I live close and actively walk in. Would like more Art Therapy!"

Name supplied

"Great gallery. Have enjoyed attending quite a few exhibitions there and today I took part in Devi's workshop. So good!"

Anne S.

"Lovely Centre. Just right for an exhibition. Lighting is really good making the paintings come to life!! Excellent gift shop"

Valarie B.

I wanted to say a huge thank you to Pepper Street Arts Centre for their support and utmost professionalism."

Vicki B.
