

Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel

The City of Burnside Council wants the following people to be part of the Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel:

- People living with disability.
- Carers.
- Service providers.
- Other people in the community who care about disability access and inclusion.

The Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel is a group of people from the community who help make decisions and provide feedback about issues that affect their community.

People who are part of the panel volunteer their time to attend meetings with other people in the panel.

To join the Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel, you must be:

- Over the age of 15.
- Live, work or study in the City of Burnside.

More information can be found in the Access and Inclusion Stakeholder Panel Operating Guidelines on the City of Burnside website:
