Melissa Symons,
Charcoal Lily Drawing

A variety of workshops and art classes are offered at Pepper Street throughout the year. Participants come from a range of backgrounds benefiting from the expertise of professional tutors.

In December students from the Saturday Children's Art Classes will be displayed in the Magill Road foyer. This is a celebration of personal development, new skills, and 'having a go' through Arts learning by these young artists of 5 - 12 years.

On view until Saturday 22 December 2007.

The impressive work by Artists of the Month, The Muliga's will continue to be on display until Wednesday 28 November 2007. Take the opportunity to be amazed by the work of these emerging artists – a group of 14 year old boys, mentored by artist Liz Wauchope, with delightful work for purchase. Support the endeavours and talent of our young artists! (Featured in the October/November issue of Pepper News).
